Waiver Form

I request that my child, _____ take the following course(s) during the 2009/2010 school year. I am aware that he/she does not meet the prerequisites for the course(s) and take full responsibility for my child's progress in the course(s). I also realize that my child must remain in the course(s) and that no change will be made even if he or she is in danger of failing.

Signature of Parent _____ Date _____

I am aware of the consequences of my decision to enroll in the course(s). It is still my desire to take the course(s).

Signature of Student _____ Date _____

Waiver Policy

Students are allowed a maximum of one waiver per department throughout their years at Morris Catholic. If a student signs a waiver to take a course, he or she must maintain the required average for all future courses in the department.

Students must be within two points of the required grade to sign a waiver form.

Students who are not within two points of the required grade or who have signed a waiver for another course in the same department will not be placed in the requested courses.
