

Scholarships & Grants

2010-2011

Paying for a Catholic education is an investment in your daughter or son's future. Morris Catholic High School affords scholarships and grants that may help with the financing of your child's education.

All scholarship applications must be submitted by the specified due dates and will be reviewed by the Advancement Scholarship Committee. All applications are available through the Advancement Office. Should a student be placed on Academic or Disciplinary Probation, he or she may become ineligible to retain their scholarship.

Blessed Pauline Scholarship Program

Named in honor of Blessed Pauline, the foundress of the Sisters of Christian Charity, the Blessed Pauline Scholarship rewards students who demonstrate a well-rounded commitment to Catholic education and who demonstrate financial need. This is a four year, partial scholarship in ranges from $500-$2000 per year. Due date: 12/31/09

Morris Catholic Academic Scholarships

These academic scholarships are granted to ten (10) incoming freshmen per year to whose Cooperative Entrance Exams (COOP) are in the highest percentiles.

Christopher Harris Thomas Scholarship

This scholarship is given in memorial of Christopher Harris Thomas, after whom our gymnasium is named.
